EU LAW AND DIGITAL DATA

Module's content for students who attended lectures and students who didn't

Module's content:

1st part: EU LAW A GENERAL INTRODUCTION (nature, institutions, sources and remerdies)

- The nature of the EU (its supranational characters; vs federation vs international law)
- General overview of the functioning of the EU (The institutional framework; procedures for adopting EU acts; EU legal sources; the protection of fundamental rights; direct effect and primacy; indirect effects; judicial remedies)

2nd part:

- The general data protection regulation (Regulation n. 2016/679; principles and application)
- The GDPR and the transfer of data to third countries
- Most recent case law

3th part: The EU Digital Strategy and its application

- The EU Digital future; The European Strategy for Data
- Normative acts
- Focus: Digital health and AI
- 4th part: Biga data and EU competition law
- Art. 101-102-106 TFEU;
- Merger decisions
- Enel X vs Google case

Course's material:

- For the 1st part EU LAW A GENERAL INTRODUCTION see R. Schutze, An introduction to European law, ISBN 0-19-189158-4;, ISBN 0-19-885894-9. You don't need to have the last edition. Also a previous edition can work.
- For the 2nd part on the GDPR see "GDPR Handbook"
- For the 3d part: Commission's communication The European Strategy for data
- For the 4th part: Big data and antitrust; Data, Platform and competition law

PLUS: All the slides of the lectures that are on the E-learning page: https://elearning.uniparthenope.it/course/view.php?id=1839#section-0

Exam's procedure:

The exam is written. The difference between students who attended 70% of classes and sudents who didn't is not about the module's content but the procedure for the exam.

Students who attended 70% of lectures have the right to pass the mid-term class and in this case will only have to pass an oral exam. Students who did not attend classes will have to pass a full written exam.

This exam will be structured in two "open" questions and will be held in 1.15 hours.